

PIC	Company: PIC Australia Ltd	Issue date: 2 November 2017
	Document: PIC AEC Report of Adverse Unexpected Effects.doc	Authorised: Quality Manager
	PIC Australia Ltd Animal Ethics Committee Report of Adverse or Unexpected Effects During the Conduct of an Approved Project

Any unexpected adverse event must be reported to the AEC immediately. This report must be completed for unexpected adverse events, including unexpected deaths and reported to the AEC.

Chief Investigator:
Project Title:
AEC Approved Number:
Species:
Date of Incident:
Date of Report:

AEC USE ONLY
Date Assessed:
Assessment Category: (cross one box only)
<input type="checkbox"/> Accepted as submitted
<input type="checkbox"/> More information required
Further action recommended by Committee:
Name of Chair: Helen Fletcher		Signature of Chair:
Initials of Members
Category A:	Category B:	Category C:	Category D:

Source of problem:

- Human Error Mechanical Error Disease/Parasite Nutritional Other

Summary of circumstances:

--

Details of the symptoms and/or signs exhibited by the animal/s:

At what stage of the project did the event occur?

What action was taken when the event happened or was discovered?

What investigations have taken place?

Supporting documentation (photos/references/pathology reports etc):

Why/how do you think this event occurred? What immediate and long-term actions are being taken to prevent a recurrence?

Results from post mortem and/or vet's investigation (please attach report)

Outcome of Incident	Yes	No	Number of Animals
Unplanned mortality
Unplanned euthanasia
Recovery (experiment continued)
Experiment terminated			Date:
Other (explain):

Was / will the protocol be amended and a Variation Application submitted?

Yes No

Future actions/precautions to be followed based on this incident: Researchers are encouraged to collaborate to evaluate the incident and propose future actions.
(Please attach)

Chief Investigator Signature:
Date: